FLOOR DEBATE

April 16, 2002      LB 1185

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...designed to...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you. I would let Senator Beutler resume his question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: That's code 0005 of the NCCI ag category descriptions. Is that category intended by you to be included in the definition of your agricultural pursuits?

SENATOR BROMM: I'm not sure that I followed the question very well. I'm really not. I can tell you what my intention is that agricultural pursuits is to include, first of all, and this is...this is primary to this definition; the cultivation of land. Okay, that if you don't have the cultivation of land...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, but let's take...let's take, okay, so let's take the nurs...let's go right to that. Let's take a couple of nurseries, right on...inside Lincoln and on the edge of Lincoln. They are raising blue spruce trees for homeowners in Lincoln. They're cultivating them right there on the land. Do you intend that to be an agricultural pursuit?

SENATOR BROMM: And that's all that they do is raise spruce trees?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, they raise a whole bunch of other kinds of trees, almost all of which are for the homeowners of Lincoln.

SENATOR BROMM: Um-hum. I think...

SENATOR BEUTLER: And flowers, and plants of different types.

SENATOR BROMM: Sure. If they aren't running a store or operating a business in conjunction with that, then I don't see
